

Murderous spin on '50s classic
C8

BUCKS COUNTY HERALD

LIVING

ENTERTAINMENT ART

Dining Out C3

SECTION C

September 2, 2010

Arriving guests are greeted at the door by Americans for Native Americans board members Mary Lee Reiff, Sharon Speer and Brian Reiff.

Americans for Native Americans garden party held at Holicong estate

The 13th annual Americans for Native Americans' annual garden party was held Aug. 22 at Barley Sheaf Farm Estate and Spa in Holicong.

Connie and the late Bill Eastburn, hosted the garden party at their home, Happy Farm in Doylestown until this year, when it moved to Barley Sheaf.

National Penn Wealth Management and National Penn Bank's Eastern Region, which includes Bucks County, shared the $10,000 sponsorship of this year's garden party.

"ANA Founders Connie Eastburn and her late husband Bill have generated widespread commitment to this very worthwhile cause over the years, and we're pleased to support it," said Don Worthington, president of National Penn Wealth Management.

"National Penn has been supporting this event for many years and we're proud to be able to make a difference in the lives of many Native Americans in need of support," added Gail Eister, National Penn retail banking director for the Eastern Region.

ANA helps tribes in the Southwest through its veterinarian and nursing scholarship programs, and it helps Native American children with food, clothing and educational materials.

David Smith, Jane Smith, Connie Eastburn's sister, and Jim Harman.

Tom Scarborough and Dr. Ahmed Mazaheri.

Gail and Lou Eister.

Photographs by Gordon Nieburg

Mary Lee Reiff, Barbara-Ann Hammer and Jayne Lester.

Donna Links and Jim Links, president of Bucks County Community College, study Americans for Native Americans board member Ted Robinson's display of Native American jewelry and books.

Steve Chadwick, Bob Russell and Bill Mandel.

Cecelia Roman and Robert Madden.

Kay Rock, Audrey Long and Mary-jo May.

Dian Herman and Phil Herman.

Denise Keil Martin, Richard Keil, Kay Rock and Steve Rock.

Ruth and Dave Logan.

H.P. and His Hot Take Out Band performs acoustic American music.